Glass Poem

FRANCES BROWN

*Eleven years of warfare we have had,
Which sometimes threatened to run us mad
With comrades around us failing fast
And fearing that we, could not all last.*

*When first we entered this field of woe,
It seemed that we couldn't resist the foe.
But with Fleming and Stowitts as our captain and guide
We come to this day with joy and pride.*

*With many a battle fought and won
And toiling on from sun to sun
We come to the end of a perfect day,
Now from each other we must soon stray.*

*Dear comrades, from you, it is sad to part,
For we hold dear the memory of each heart.
May we strive on with a greater aim in view,
And in later years, our friendship renew.*

*Now as our dreams have all come true,
And the days of warfare which were quite a few,
Have passed like clouds on the darkened sky
Leaving sunshine and gladness in each eye.*

*In looking back o'er our days of strife,
We thank Him who gave us strength and life,
And to the faculty who has let us through
We now bid you a fond adieu.*

WILLIS LEA ALDRIDGE

"If you feel like flying try it, but look for a good place to light."

We regret that "Pat" did not join us in our Freshman year, so that we might have known her longer. She is known by her gentle ways and kind smiles. All of her fellow students love her and wish her success in life. Although she is not a bird now, she may be some day.

Smiling Laurie is everybody's friend and she is always ready to extend her helping hand. She admits that she is partial to the Boot of "St. John" and we think that she will be an expert teacher of "St. John." We wish her much happiness throughout life.

WILLIAM BRANNOCK

"Little said is easiest mended."

Class Track (3, 4).

A boy who weighs his words before he speaks is a boy who has something worth while to say. Bill as he is better known in our class is a quiet congenial boy. His pleasant smile has won many a friend in the long four years of toil. If he continues as he has done in the past his efforts here will not have been vain. Here's luck to you Bill.

FRANCES REBECCA BROWN

French Club (3, 4); Treasurer (4); Hiking Club (2); Dramatic Club (4); Attendance Honor Roll (2); Field Day (1, 2); Gymnastics (1, 2, 3); Old Original; Field Day Monitor (4); Class baseball (3).

Look who we have before us! Frances has a host of friends which she entertains with her witty remarks and a sunny smile. She is one of our best short-story writers and musicians. Frances, we bet on you for great things.

ROBERT LEE BROWN

"Be not simply good, but be good for something."

Robert is a very quiet sort of a person. But he manages to make a good many friends and to persuade "Glasses" to believe he is good-looking. Buster's favorite color is "Red."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Football (4); Varsity Track (2); Class Track (1, 2, 3); Field Day (1, 2); Voted Most Courteous, Neatest Boy.

Quiet, unobtrusive but achieving with that decision that speaks of a strong dependable character. Always cheerful but never boisterous, we find Herbert universally liked. He is certainly an exception to the rule that "distance lends enchantment." Herbert may your efforts float high upon the stairway of fame.

ROBERT BUTLER

"And the elements were so mixed in her that nature might stand up and say to all the world—'This was a man'."

Assistant Baseball Manager (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain Class Track (4); Football Team (1, 3, 4); Basket-ball Team (4); Class Basket-ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Track Team (1); Treasurer Class (1, 2, 3); Athletic Association Treasurer (4); Monogram Club (3, 4); Field Day (1, 2, 3, 4).

HELEN CASTELEEN CARTER

*In any class, of any kind
She'd be an acquisition;
She's amiable to every one—
It's just her disposition.*

RENOCAHI Staff (1); Honor Roll for Attendance (1).

To know Helen is to love her. She has won the hearts of her classmates by her kind and gentle ways. We are sure that she will make a success in life.

"Bailey" is proof enough that ladies as well as gentlemen prefer blondes. Musician, business man, and athlete, straightforward and a good pal. We'd stake our boots on "Bailey."

WILLIAM CHANEY

"No one knows what he can do until he tries."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3); RENOCAHI Staff (4); Class Basket-ball (3, 4); Class Baseball (3); Debating Council (3); Cheer Leader (4); Noisest Boy; Biggest Grumbler; Old Original.

Though diminutive physically, "Runt" occupies quite a large place in the class happenings. He possesses the art of doing a thing and getting away with it. Always ready with a reply to any thrust in his direction, we find him greatly liked by all.

ELVA COX

"Second thoughts are ever wiser."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Field Day (1, 2, 3); Class Basket-ball (1, 2, 3); Hiking Club (1); Class Baseball (3).

Quiet, studious, good natured, these words just spell Elva. We think she would look well in household settings. She loves to jest, too, when she isn't studying.

Hiking (1, 2); French Club (3, 4); Dramatic Club (2, 3); Athletic Association (2, 3); Class Basket-ball (2, 3); Track (3); Honor Roll for Attendance (1, 2).

Mozelle always does her best, but we don't know about leaving the rest. Although she often goes to the "Broadway" she always finds time for her lessons. She counts everyone as a friend and we are proud to be so. Mozelle adores birds, especially the "J's." Her dependability and lovable personality are sure to make her a great nurse and we hope she will find plenty more "J's" in Richmond.

CLYDE VENABLE DAVIS

"Speech is the index of the mind."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3); Field Day (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Track Team (1, 2, 3); Cheer Leader (4); Varsity Typewriting Team (3); Magazine Typist (4); Triangular Debate (4); Glee Club (4); Class Historian; Old Original.

Flaming locks must certainly be the symbol of skill and energy. As a typist and artist "Greenhead" is usually as busy as a one legged man doing the black bottom but it hasn't killed his fun. He has that saving sense of humor.

DAPHNE LUCILLE GILLIAM

*"When hearts are true,
A few words will do."*

Patient toleration of life is the attitude Daphne takes. She is true to her friends at all times, and she has a host of friends. She says that she is nobody's best girl, but don't we all know that she is trying to fool us.

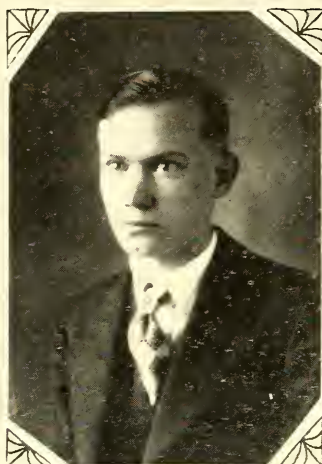

MELBA GROGAN

*"Her blue eyes sought the west afar,
For lovers love the western star."*

A pause must be made for a look at "Malaba." Although quiet she is a willing helper. When it comes to Elon she's a perfect "Angel." She is a good little cook and she says some day she hopes to Specialize in "Chops."

EDWIN GUNN

"Aim at the highest there is always room at the top."

Junior Debating Society (1); Athletic Association (4); Class Baseball (3, 4); Class Basket-ball (4).

We find in Edwin one of the most studious and dependable boys in our class. His nick-name, "shot gun" well applies, for we believe he will hit the mark, and will aim only for that which is highest and best.

MABLE HARDY

*"Come and trip as you go,
On the light fantastic toe."*

Treasurer (1); Hiking Club (1); Track (1, 2, 3); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); RENOCAHI Staff (4); French Club (3, 4); Vice President (4); Dramatic Club (2, 3, 4); Costume Manager (3); Make-up Manager (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Quartet (4); Assistant Cheer Leader (3); Cheer Leader (4); Voted Most Poetical—Best Personality.

Although Mable has been on the "Virge of an affaire du coeur" she has managed to do things "Brown." She's a popular "peptimist" and she can make Salome look like a rheumatic Gilda Gray and Pavlowa had better look to their laurels.

ALBERT L. HASKINS, JR.

thro'."*

EVELYN BYRD LANE

"Music has power to calm the savage breast."

Glee Club (3, 4); Pianist (4); Orchestra (2); Class Basket-ball (1, 2); Field Day (1, 2, 4); High School Pianist (4); High School Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club Soloist (4); Dramatic Club (2, 3, 4); Pianist (4); French Club (3, 4); Gymnasium Class (1, 2); Hiking Club (1, 2); Class Tennis Team (2); Double and Mixed Quartet (4); Athletic Association (1, 2); Voted Biggest Flapper and Flirt, Biggest Nuisance, Noisiest, Most Talented, Most Musical.

Athletic Association (1); Dramatic Club (1, 2); French Club (3, 4); Honor Roll for Attendance (1, 2); Field Day (4); Voted Quietest Girl.

DURA MAE McCOY

*"From day to day in the Same old way
Sounds the Merry
Laughter of Mae."*

Voted Biggest Giggler.

When you hear some one laugh you may cast your eye around and to be sure you will see Mae. Whenever and wherever she meets you she greets you with a smile. Mae is very popular among both girls and boys. We regret that she did not join us before our junior year, but in the short length of time she has won a host of friends at R. H. S.

A fig for care, a fig for woe."*

French Club (3, 4).

Let Reign the King of happiness
And you will never be sad."*

Voted Most Modest.

We sure will miss "our modest Ruby," although she is seldom heard. Her tendency to look on the bright side of every thing and give everyone a helping hand in the heart of her classmates. She is noted for her "frankness" in what she says. We wish you the best of success Ruby.

FORREST POWELL

"Silence is golden."

HAROLD L. ROYALS

"Ever let the Fancy roam, Pleasure never is at home."

Athletic Association (4).

Harold is one of the most polite boys at R. H. S. He is very studious. Harold is very particular about his appearance. His hair is always "slick," and his tie just right. He must be interested in the opposite sex, altho' he is very bashful.

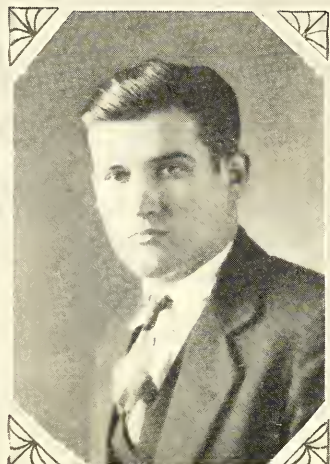

He is often seen writing letters, we think he's taking a "Correspondence Course." We hope you will be a great success, Harold.

MARGARET SANDS

*"Good natured, generous, jolly and clever,
Her tongue like a brooklet goes on forever."*

"Bill" is the best looking boy at R. H. S. He is a good athlete and also a bright student. He is noted for getting by with the teachers, especially Miss Bunn. We think "Bill" is in "Love" because he talks in his sleep the next day on class. "Bill's" brightest ambition is to be a great man. Luck to you "Bill."

LOUISE GREY SMITH

"Love all, trust a few, be false to none."

When we hear Louise—we think of a sweet girl, for Louise has proved to be one of the sweetest and smartest girls in our class. She's always ready to help anybody she can and always ready to sympathize but even with that she's ready for a good time, we expect a great success from Louise.

John is known as the "recess cut up." He always has crowds awaiting to hear his outlandish "speels." But John's a wonder because he manages to work and play in the same day. Best of Luck, Johnnie.

DOROTHY J. SOUTHARD

"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may Old time is fast a-flying."

French Club (3, 4); Member Hiking Club (1, 2); Honor Roll (1, 2).

"Dot" joined us in our sophomore year but has climbed to the top with us. She is very studious and quiet although she does "Bark" a little. We hope in her teaching they will love her as we have.

Will Rogers had better watch his ropes.
"Dad" has a pungent sense of humor and a personality to put it over. By the way have you heard this one.

EDNA MAE STONE

*"It's the song ye sing
And the smile ye wear
That's a-making the sunshine everywhere."*

Reidsville High School will mourn the loss of Edna, who is one of the most studious girls in our class. She helps herself and is never too tired to help others. She has saved us many a zero on Monday morning. She has many friends both in her own class and in the other classes. They all love her and wish her the greatest of success as a teacher.

MABLE TAPSCOTT

*"To sum up all, be merry,
I advise and as we're merry, may we still be wise."*

Mable joined our class this year, coming from Pleasant Grove and she has proved a valuable addition to the class. To know Mable is to love her. She is a good student and goes about her work quietly without display of any kind.

ELTON H. TRENT

"Be not merely good, but good for something."

Track (4); Field Day (4).

Cast an eye here! It is "Buck," one of our most dependable boys. His greatest pleasure is "wading" in daisies that grow in Leaksville. "Buck" has a frank and cheerful disposition and has won for himself many friends in the school.

CORNELIA ELIZABETH TROXLER

"Better to live without money than without friends."

French Club (3, 4); Secretary French Club (4); Attendance Honor Roll (3); Hiking Club (2); Glee Club (3, 4); Dramatic Club (4);

If you like a good sport, a cheerful dependable and sympathetic girl. "That's Cornelia all over." She is a regular shark when it comes to French. If there's anything that she doesn't know, it just hasn't been discovered.

Although she drives a Buick she is fond of "Cart—er"—yes a cart with a red-headed driver.

"You will not be loved if you think of no one but yourself."

WILLIAM TURNER

"What's worth doing at all, is worth doing well."

Field Day (3); Athletic Association (1, 3).

William's cheerful and sunny nature has won for him many friends in R. H. S. William always attends to his own business and does his work well. He is the type of person who we believe will make the sturdy, honorable, reliable, dependable citizen of the coming generation.

JERRY SAMUEL WAGONER

"Pug" is one of the most popular boys of the senior class. One cannot help notice the quality of stick-to-it-ness that characterizes "Pug's" every action. When it comes to untangling the geometrical medly "Pug" simply follows his nose and manages to get there in fine style. He has certainly "gotten there" in our opinion, too.

LUCY ELIZABETH WARE

Let Duty go to smash."*

"Bobby" is the Juliet and "Little Willie" is the Romeo. Pins and candy seem to be her specialty but she is also fond of "The Coming of Amos."

ANNIE CARR WHITEMORE

"I came, I saw, I conquerd."

French Club (3, 4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Magazine Staff (3); Class Basket-ball (2, 3); Voted Prettiest Girl.

"Her very frowns are fairer far Than smiles of other maidens are."

Dramatic Club (4); French Club (3, 4); President French Club (4); Hiking Club (1, 2); Class Baseball (3); Old Original; Voted Most Dignified.

"Frank" as she is sometimes called is one of the sweetest girls at R. H. S. Without her smiles on Monday we would surely "pass out." She has a very hard time checking on her numerous "beaux." We're wishing her great success at Greenville.

RUBY WILLIAMS

"Trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle."

Athletic Association (1, 2); French Club (2, 3); Attendance Honor Roll (2, 3, 4); Honor Roll (1, 3, 4).

Many envy "Lou" for her musical talent and disposition. She has one that everybody admires. She laughs off all her worries except one—"Tom" boys. This is more serious says she.

MARY BUTLER WRAY

"Eat, drink and 'Mer B'."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Basket-ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain Class Basket-ball (3); Varsity Basket-ball Squad (1, 2, 3, 4); Manager Varsity Basket-ball (3); Captain Varsity Basket-ball (4); Field Day (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain Field Day (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Hiking Club (1, 2); Class Tennis Team (1); French Club (3); Voted Giftorian; Most Popular; Best All Around; Most Athletic Girl.

Read the above. Actions speak louder than words. "Mer B's." Motto is "Be yourself." If you don't like that you're hard to please.

MYRTLE PEARSON

RIENDS and Citizens of Reidsville," our hearts are overflowing with joy to-night, but we can barely hold back our tears when we think of leaving the dear building that has been a home to us in our four years of work and play together. Although we have reached the parting of the ways, we feel that we have erected the greatest and the most important part of our structure—the foundation.

Just here I pause to express in a small way our appreciation to the school board for the wonderful educational opportunities afforded us; for the splendid judgment shown in the selection of text books and teachers. Had it not been for your untiring efforts we would not be here to-night. Thus in our hearts is a cordial welcome for each of you, who has expended your time, your thought and your judgment in our behalf.

To our superintendent, principal and faculty members I must say that we owe a debt of gratitude, which we cannot pay. We know that you love us, because only love could prompt the patience and attention that you have given us. Hence we would voice a cheerful welcome to you, because the occasion would not be complete without your presence and your moral support.

Last, but by no means least, comes the debt of gratitude to our parents. You, who have struggled to keep us in school, in order that we might get the right kind of foundation, upon which to build our future lives. We know that we can never repay you, but we hope to do just the things in life that will bring you happiness and joy. Therefore we thrice welcome you on this occasion when we are receiving our first laurels.

We trust that this will be an occasion of joy to every one of you. Now that the strife is over and the Armistice is signed it is you, our nearest and dearest friends with whom we wish to rejoice.

History of the Class of '27

CLYDE DAVIS

NE bright sunny day in the month of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred sixteen a group of young recruits signed up for an attack on the fort of Knowledge. The officers holding the fort grimly muttered between their teeth, "They shall not pass!"

We were in for seven years of preparation before we went into the front line trenches. We started our training with all the vim and vigor born of novelty but we soon settled down to the normal routine of camp life. We were taught to keep our tents in order and if a surplus of paper collected in the camp the guilty one was often taken into the cloak-room and given a severe court-martial.

We were given to thoroughly understand army discipline, something we hated with a vim, because when discipline was broken we were put into the guard house for one hour after drill and target practice.

Our camp life was far from monotonous. We attacked and put to rout the outposts of Marshal Geometry's forces consisting of the three R's.

We then shoved ahead and charged the hill position of Geography. after a furious fight we captured this hill and started shelling hill 135 which was held by Captain History.

By the end of the seventh year we had advanced from the raw recruit stage into the buck private stage, although we thought we were veterans.

Here the ravages of the disease, Latin, came into effect. Many of our regiment took Latin in spite of vaccination. A sufficient antitoxin has not yet been perfected and almost as many fall through the ravages of this disease as fall on account of the bullets of the forces of Marshal Geometry.

We had a hard time breaking through the barbed wire entanglements of Algebra, Spanish and Civics but our captains went ahead in tanks equipped with wire cutters and fence rippers and we followed them up. The shrapnel fixes and sixes fell thicker but we put across the counter-barrage of hard work.

After storming and capturing the position of Civics, History retired without firing a single shot.

As we charged in semi-circular formation up the inclined plane toward the geometric forces we were shot at from various angles.

At this point History, greatly reinforced, gave us a snappy counter-attack and with the concentration of Generals English, Math, French, European and American History and the Flying squadron of commercial work we had a hot time taking the Fort.

However, we had our lulls in the battle. We were a very successful division in Athletics. In our first year and also in the second year we won first place in the annual field day track meet.

We furnished our share of singers, comedians, acrobats, etc., to keep the entire army entertained. In the second year we furnished one of the famous speakers, while in the third year we furnished two and in the fourth year one.

We have writers in our division, too. Our class took off first and second prizes in the annual short story contest in the third year and in the fourth year we took off first and third prizes.

Also in the fourth year we are furnishing all the art work for the magazine published by the allied forces.

We are the second class to be given honorable discharge in caps and gowns as a token of our successful campaign. We pause here to thank profoundly the lieutenants Whitley, Bunn, Rowe, Jenner, Hutton, Womack and Beach Miller and Commander-in-Chief Fleming and General Stowitts who have boosted us "over the top."

Glass Prophecy

EXCIE BURTON

Y friends and fellow comrades, as I stir into this boiling cauldron of the future I see the fortunes of many faces revealed unto me, but all fade before mine eyes except the fates of those of us who are assembled here to-night. We have braved the battles together and every one has proved his worth. Not one has turned traitor to the great cause—Education. Now we are gathering here to say farewell. We may never all meet again, so I will tell you the fates of those of us who are here as the vapor from the steaming pot tells them to me.

Salvation Army Lassie, Edna Stone will be playground supervisor for Reidsville.

Private, Virge Brown will be Football Coach at Cobb Memorial, with Salvation Army Lassie, Mable Hardy near to give him inspiration.

Private, William Burton. Here there seems to be a contradiction. Fate says that he should be a great dramatist and that he should be manager of "The Little Theatre" of New York City. However, the Theater seems to be closed, there seems to be a blurr—which indicates that he did not arrive on time. Hence the closed doors.

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1927

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM
CITY OF REIDSVILLE

We, the Company of 1927 of said city, county and state, being fully aware of the fact that we are about to depart from this zone of preparation to travel the dangerous and unknown path of warfare, being of a full mind and sound body and realizing that our dearest and most treasured possessions must be left to those whom we leave behind, do make and publish this our last will and testament, revoking and making void all previous wills heretofore made by us.

In our departure from these fields of preparation we do direct that our departing exercises be directed by our most treasured friends, the Staff; and that they be carried out with all the pomp and dignity that our most coveted position demands.

First—We do hereby will and bequeath to our successors, Companies 10I, 10II and 11B when they do become of mental capacity to absorb and collect, a certain right which was left to us by our predecessors, but which we have no recollection of ever receiving, respectfully called "Senior Privileges."

Second—We do hereby will and bequeath to the Companies 7I, 7II and 7III of the Junior Reserves our boundless store of knowledge and ability for enduring discipline, which we have obtained only through the undying and encouraging efforts of our beloved staff.

Third—We do hereby will and bequeath to the class of 1975 all the money left in our treasury, all of our securities and other valuables including credit at the bank, provided that they shall erect a fitting memorial to the class of '27.

Fourth—And now having disposed of all our possessions in common among us, we do will and bequeath the following personalities:

William Clarence (Mutt) Burton's hot air oratory to the already famed hot air exhauster, Hon. Julian Delancey.

Ruby Partlow's gentle disposition to Winnie Dunn.

Anna Dell Apple, Frances Brown, Lucile Windsor and Mildred Burton's membership in the "Old Maids' Society" to Ruth Manley, Beatrice Thornburg, Sara Whitsett and Sara Hastings. They've decided to resign.

Paul Hastings' million dollar smile to Goat Gentry—provided he has no gold teeth.

Milburn Amos's "White" outlook to the Juniors to be used in their dark moments.

Mary Wray's appetite to Suzanne Whitsett, provided she confines it to the cafeteria.

Margaret Humphreys' dependability and quietness to Annie Coleman.

Frank Chance's manly charms to Carrol Garrison.

Mabel Hardy's book on How to Keep that Youthful Form to Jenny Satterfield.

Myrtle Pearson's excellent grades to Julia Ware.

Mozelle Dallas's height to Gladys Rogers.

Edwin Gunn's athletic abilities to Francis Dixon.

Alexandria Paul (Pot) Sands's crazy cracks to his successor—if he can ever be found.

The runtiness of Roy Lee (Skinney) Minor to Robert Richardson, hoping that Robert will come down to earth.

Rebecca White's conceit to Phoebe Clark, knowing that she will add it to that which she has already attained.

Clyde Venable (Greenhead) Davis's Flaming mane to the first mattress company coming to Reidsville.

William (Lon) Chaney's disgruntled spirit and continuous bark to Jacob Schulman, knowing that by this addition Jacob will have his way next year.

Lillian Mace's quietude to Frances Garrison with the following prescription highly recommended: Apply every other minute until cured.

Gladys (Lazy) Aldridge does will to the dome economic class of 1928 the cooking stoves, utensils and entire equipment including some doughnuts which she made and used for curtain rings.

Jerry Samuel (Pug) Wagoner does will his dignity to Billy Ware knowing that Billy will become a most dignified person, because Pug has used it sparingly.

Mae McCoy does will her ability to giggle at the crucial moments to Cornie Williams, hoping that Cornie will sometime develop a laugh.

Evelyn Lane's wanton wiles and out of styles to Rebecca Glass.

Evan Palmer wills his idea of chewing gum instead of the rag, to the Junior Class; the idea is willed, but not the gum.

David Johnson wills his extra-ordinary ability to sleep on class to Philip Ballard, knowing that the class would rather see Philip asleep than hear him awake.

Clyde (Big Andy) McKinney, class, baby, does solemnly will and bequeath to Robert Morphis his rattlers, toys and other babish contraptions.

Elizabeth Ware wills her cherry smile to Helen Knight.

Virge Brown, William Saunders and Robert Butler, having already willed or mortgaged what they have or ever expect to have, have nothing to will.

John Smith, wills his freckle creams and lotions to Anna Love Oliver.

Jack Montgomery's great understanding (feet) to Capt. Alec Montgomery.

Virginia (Jinks) Mims's gentleman's preference to some other blonde.

Annie Carr Whittemore's Frank disposition to any one who is willing to take a Chance with it.

Excie Burton's foresight and bluffing abilities to Henry Meador.

Cornelia Troxler's sarcasm to the officers (faculty).

And now having disposed of all those possessions in common among us, and those personalities which are dearest to us, we do hereby set our hand and seal to this, our last will and testament, this first day of June 1927.

SENIOR CLASS 1927

(Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Senior Class to be their last will and testament, in our presence and we, in their presence and in the presence of each other, have at their request set our names hereunto as witnesses.

RUBY WILLIAMS

EAR Friends, Teachers, and Classmates:

This day of all days spells hope for us and yet this same day brews tears for many of us. We have completed the four years of high school strife and to-night are waiting the call to a greater battle. But before we move forward we wish to express our deep appreciation to you who have made the past campaign so successful.

We regret to leave our superintendent, principal, and teachers. They have brought us out of our four year's struggle victors and we trust that the coming years will prove that their patient training has made us true soldiers.

To our school board we wish to express our appreciation for your loyal aid. We realize that your faithful planning has made it possible for our school to hold its present distinction and thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

To the citizens of Reidsville who have financed the entire campaign we wish to say, "I thank you." You have made it possible for us to rank among the sixteen best winners in the state, although our town is comparatively small. You have given us the beautiful building which, as our camping ground, has endeared itself to us. We also wish to thank the churches for adding to our school the Bible department. You cannot realize the aid it has given us.

And lastly, to our parents who have made the sacrifice to send us overseas, who have furnished the Liberty Bonds and enabled us to cross the Rhine to-day we express deepest gratitude. We can never repay you except by love and we hope that some day you will be justly proud of us.

To the class of '28 we extend greetings. We hope that you will be even greater victors than we.

Yes, to-night, after four years of encampment we are leaving our old camping ground. A common quest has drawn us together as classmates. Like Galahad we have had our visions. But like Galahad we shall not see the Holy Grail of our ambition unless we keep the faith—that faith that endures to the end—that faith attendant upon high purposes resolved and worthy ends attained.

(Tune: "Smile A While")

FRANCES BROWN

Now the time has come to bid adieu
And sweet memories which are quite a few
We must leave them all behind,
Still we treasured them in mind
When to college we must roam
Far away from home, sweet home
Still dear friends it gives us pain
Till we meet again.

(Tune: "Pack Up Your Troubles")

CLYDE DAVIS

Examinations are over now
So smile, smile, smile
While you are waiting for your diploma
Smile boys that's the style
What's the use of studying
It never was worth while
So pack up your papers in the old desk drawer
An' smile, smile, smile!

(Tune: "K-K-K Katy")

CLYDE DAVIS

Nineteen Hundred
Twenty-seven
We are graduating now as you see
Nineteen Hundred
Twenty-seven
Dolled all up in caps and gowns are we.
S-S-S Senior
Important seniors
A finished product is before you now
S-S-S- Seniors
Classy seniors
To do our best is our last solemn vow.

In Flunker's Fields

WILLIAM BURTON

In Flunker's fields the papas blow
About the cross-marks row on row
That mark our fate, while far and nigh
The "grads" go gaily by
Scarce heard amid the groans below.
We are the "failed" short days ago
We passed, felt fine saw no zero
Laughed and were laughed at and now we lie
In Flunker's fields.
We have no quarrel, only woe!
To you from falling hands we throw
This tip; don't play and bluff too much
If ye break faith and get "in Dutch"
Ye too shall sleep where loafers go,
In Flunker's fields.

(Tune: "Jeanne D' Arc")

FRANCES BROWN

School, Adieu! School Adieu!
Time has come that we must part from you.
But lead us on to victory
Through years of joy and memory.
Friends, adieu! friends adieu!
Let us e'en be kind and true,
And may we now live happily
Our dear school, we are calling you.

(Tune: "Over There")

FRANCES BROWN

Seniors, get your gun! get your gun! get your gun!
Have a little fun, on the run, on the run.
After years of toil and strife
Glad we are of life.

CHORUS

We'll be there, we'll be there, We'll be there.
The seniors are coming, the seniors are coming
To a college here and there
We'll be there, we'll be there
We're coming over
And we won't come back 'til its over every where.
